MOVIE

Exclusive Media Alert: Press & Influencers Invited to the Screening of "Tube-E Movie"

Date: September 24, 2024

What: Exclusive Screening and Media Interview Opportunity for the Hilarious Satirical Film, "Tube-E Movie"

When: Wednesday, October 2nd, 2024, at 6:00 PM

Where: ACX Harper Theater - Hyde Park, 5238 S Harper Ave, Chicago, IL 60615

Event Highlights:

Media professionals and influencers are invited to the exclusive screening of "Tube-E Movie", a new, uproarious satire that takes aim at today's streaming platforms with a blend of wit, absurdity, and charm. Attendees will enjoy an opportunity to interview the film's talented actors and producer before the screening. This exclusive private screening will be hosted by non other than 5 time Emmy winner and publicist Afrika Porter.

Tube-E Movie tells the story of a young couple and their unusually wise son, intertwined with the lives of other couples facing fidelity challenges. The twist? The actors repeatedly break character, unleashing real-life frustrations on the bewildered cast and crew, while others hilariously stick to their roles. Set against a backdrop of today's streaming platforms, the movie provides a side-splitting look at the bizarre and outlandish content these platforms are known for.

Why Attend:

- Be the first to experience this must-watch comedy that hilariously blurs the lines between fiction and reality.
- Interview the stellar cast, including comedic icons such as Damon Williams, Adele Givens, and Philana Sanders.
- Get an insider look at Will Adams' latest directorial effort, a film that mocks the eccentricities of modern streaming platforms.
- Perfect for those who appreciate bold, offbeat humor.

Meet the Cast:

- Damon Williams – Brings sharp wit and comedic timing.
- Philana Sanders – Balances absurdity with moments of genuine humor.
- Adele Givens – Masterclass in comedic timing, delivering some of the film's biggest laughs.

Behind the Scenes:

Directed, written, and produced by Chicago's own Will Adams, "Tube-E Movie" showcases his talent for blending satire with insightful commentary on the bizarre nature of modern media. Adams, a Columbia College Chicago alum, continues to push boundaries with his innovative approach to storytelling.
