It's a brilliant homage to Tubi's quirkiest offerings, turning the unpredictable streaming universe into a comedic masterpiece.

BRIEF SYNOPSIS

In Tube-E Movie, a young couple, their clever son, and romantically confused friends embark on a wild ride that's anything but typical. Actors hilariously break character mid-scene, venting their frustrations to a baffled cast and crew, while the rest stay fully in character. This film masterfully satirizes Tubi's content library, delivering a rollercoaster of romance, laughs, and perplexing plot twists. For those who love unpredictable humor, Tube-E Movie is a laugh-out-loud celebration of all things quirky in the streaming world.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

I created Tube-E Movie after seeing countless posts online making fun of bad movie content. That's when the idea struck me: what if the actors in the movie did the same thing, calling out their scene's imperfections? My focus was to make the audience laugh with us, not at us.

OBSTACLES WHILE FILMING

The biggest challenge in making Tube-E Movie was intentionally making it bad. I wrestled with the jokes, worrying that viewers might think the mistakes were accidental, rather than part of the humor. But the ultimate goal was to have everyone in on the joke!
